Swing 'n' Sway

Swing 'n' Sway is the youngest of the three clubs. Their dances are held on the fourth Saturday of each month at Arbor Hall. A number of changes are being made by the Swing 'n' Sway Board including:

- A new club motto "fun 'n' lively"
- Music for the beginner as well as the accomplished dancer
- Emphasis on Swing, Hustle, Cha Cha and other Latin dances
- Use of more current music
- Casual dress at Summer dances

Please see article on Page 3 for more details.

Swing 'n' Sway

We welcome Ken Wiginton to the helm of the Swing 'n' Sway dance club. Our board has been operating for some months without a president. Ken volunteered to step up and take the reins.

Reins are no stranger to the south Texas native, who grew up on a ranch. Coming from a western state, Ken's early dance experience came in country and western dancing. Since he has been a part of the local dance community, he has moved toward West Coast Swing and ballroom. He presently takes lessons at Dayton Ballroom on Monday evenings and also takes lessons from instructors Terry Cavanaugh and Jill Christy. Ken particularly enjoys Swing dancing.

Ken wants to move Swing 'n' Sway to have its membership being even more cordial and welcome those who may be beginners in ballroom dancing. "All the dance clubs must welcome new people or we will not survive," he said. Ken is a proponent of having established club members invite the newcomers to dance. He wants to promote more mixing among older club members and newer guests. "We want them (new guests) to enjoy themselves and to come back," he said. "I want them to have fun. If anyone is NOT having any fun at a Swing 'n' Sway dance, Ken said he wants to be the first one to know about it. "Come see me if they have a question," he said. "I want to be open about what I want to do."

As we welcome newcomers this summer, the club also welcomes them to arrive in more casual attire. Shorts for both men and women will be acceptable as long as good taste prevails. Culottes will also be acceptable for the ladies as well as casual slacks, again when worn in good taste.

See you 'round the dance floor.

— Dean Shipley, Reporter

'76 Dance Club

If you weren't at the June 76 dance, you missed a beautiful and enchanting Waltz performed by our own May Cheng and Calvin Pauley. They literally 'floated' over the dance floor. You also missed another evening filled with music by deejay John Bramhall. Many, many thanks go to May and Cal and John!

We had a marvelous time in June and hope you will spend part of the 4th of July weekend at the 76 dance on July 5. Also, remember to mark your calendars for August 2 when we will hold our 3rd annual "Hot Dog Days of August" picnic and dance. Hot dogs, lemonade and chips will be served at intermission and casual attire [no shorts, please] is welcome.

Lastly, it isn't too late to join the 76 Club to take advantage of the savings to members. We prorate the dues so that you won't pay for dances that have already occurred in our fiscal year. Come join us - it's fun [and smart!]

Hope to see you at Arbor!

— Lynn Thompson

Dance(tonians)

It was a beautiful night for dancing and Jack Meinking filled the air with excellent music that kept everyone on their feet the entire evening. Father's Day decorations of assorted colorful hats in all shapes and sizes dotted the tables and door prizes of restaurant gift certificates were awarded to the lucky winners.

Dance(tonians)

Over 120 dancers attended Dance(tonians') June 14, dance and were treated to a Cha Cha lesson by Bob and Rosie McCrady owners of Bob and Rosie's Dance Studio here in Dayton. Bob and Rosie took over from Bernice Dubro Studio and have become a popular couple who teach private and group lessons in all levels of dance at St. Mark's Church Social Hall on Woodman Ave. Thank you Bob and Rosie for teaching some great steps that we can use in our Cha Cha. Your love of dancing energized the crowd and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the lesson!

Dance(tonians) Annual Membership Meeting and Party will be held Saturday, July 12, at Arbor Hall. Complimentary refreshments of strawberry cake and chocolate fudge cake will be served after a brief business meeting and election of board members at intermission. A dance lesson on Samba featuring professional instructor John Bucholz will begin at 7:30. Mark your calendar!

— Marilyn Collmer Franer

July 12

Dance Lesson on Samba

Instructed by

John Bucholz

Dance(tonians') second Saturday dance on July 12 will feature professional instructor John Bucholz who will teach Samba beginning at 7:30pm. Bring your dancing shoes, practice swaying your hips and learn some new Samba steps! The lesson is included in the price of admission to the dance and general dancing with DJs Jack and Bonnie Yaus will begin at 8:15pm.

John Bucholz has been a professional dance instructor since 1991 and started Ballroom Dancing as a student of Bernice DuBro at the YWCA of Dayton. John's first competition was in the Pro/Am division at Ohio Star Ball with his teacher, Mary Murphy, who is now a judge and choreographer on the hit television show So You Think You Can Dance. After Mary moved to California, John continued dancing as an amateur and began taking lessons with Indianapolis instructor Brigitte Scott and competing annually at the Ohio Star Ball.

John was recognized five times as Top Student at the Ohio Star Ball and continually made the finals when competing at the United States Ballroom Championships in Miami. John's national achievements at the USBC included 3rd. in American Smooth, 2nd. in American Rhythm and 2nd. in Open International Latin. John also took Amateur honors and placed 2nd. in American Smooth at USBC with Diana Maurer after having just seven weeks to prepare!

John looks forward every year to the Dance (tonians') Dance Fair and the 2008 event was his 22nd consecutive year of performing! John still dances with Brigitte and he and several of his students take coaching from Bonita Brockert in Cincinnati. John teaches private lessons in all levels of dance at his Studio on Smithville Road and group lessons at the Southern Hills United Methodist Church Social Hall, 2287 S. Dixie Highway, Dayton. Phone: 937-760-2004.

We are glad John calls Dayton home and Dance(tonians) are proud to have him teach Samba at our Annual Meeting, Party and Dance on July 12!

Swing 'n' Sway Board Making Changes

The Board Members of Swing 'n' Sway met Tuesday, June 17 and decided to launch a bold new campaign to increase attendance. The club adopted the motto "fun 'n' lively" as the steering element in their campaign.

The decision was made to play more peppy music, to play music the beginner could dance to as well as the accomplished dancer. More emphasis will be placed on Swing, Hustle, Cha Cha, and other Latin dances. A new DJ, Terry Cavanaugh, is being added to the rotation in 2009. The current DJs have been asked to play more modern music.

Summer dances are now casual dress. Dances will become theme parties. We have several theme parties planned which are; end of summer Jimmy Buffet party, Hawaiian Luau, costume ball for Halloween, pizza party, a formal Spring dance. Afternoon workshops are also being planned. Reminders of the dance and its theme will be emailed out to those who sign up on our email list.

The club is now offering free raffle tickets to regulars who bring in a new guest. Two for one tickets will be available from board members for people new to Arbor Hall. Local dance studios and instructors support with incentives will be solicited. In addition, the club is offering free admission to all active military personnel with proper ID.

One last thing, board meetings are open to all of our members. We are encouraging our members to attend. The meetings are not boring. We are excited and have lots of things being worked on. The next board meeting will be July 22 and we would love for all members of the club to participate. Active support from club members will go a long way toward helping us meet our goal. If you are interested in attending, please contact one of our board members.

— Ken Wiginton, President

Medal Ball/Summer Dance 2008

Where: The Dayton Country Club
555 Kramer Road, Dayton, OH 45419

When: Sunday, July 27, 2008
2 – 5pm DVIDA syllabus certifications
5 – 8pm Special cookout on the patio, And dancing in the ballroom!!

Who: Every dancer in the region is invited!
And if you use the DVIDA syllabus and are outside of our region you are invited too! We have never had anyone regret being a part of this annual event.

Why: All dancers enjoy a "Proof in the Pudding" event!
Most dancers dance with their teacher(s), or studio owner(s) and grow accustomed to their praise and correction... But when someone 'other' than your regular 'professional' (like a Nationally recognized examiner) certifies your dancing or dance level it provides a more concrete sense of accomplishment that is based on a standard of performance and execution. "The proof is in the Pudding"

This day of fun is only $45.00 per person and reservations should be made with Always Ballroom, 937-256-2626. Call today and let us know to expect you there...we're expecting you!
