February

Happy February

In this month of love, let us reach out to each other and cherish our friendships.

There are so many blessings for us to count each day, and we must count them all before they are gone. Let the people in your life know how much they mean to you and share your love of dance with others.

Friendship Challenge: In the month of February, contact a friend you haven't seen in a while and invite them to a dance.
