DECEMBER 2020

I am certain that no one in the “Dance Community” had any idea that 2020 would be such a disaster for ballroom dancers. We have missed not only the dancing, but also the many wonderful friendships we have made since we started dancing. We look forward to the time that we can once again resume the dances and not have to be concerned about spreading illness. That day will come. We cherish our happy memories and

Happy Holidays
No Dances For December

Dear Dancers,

Greetings from the Dayton Dance Clubs. We hope you are staying safe and finding peace this holiday season. Although things look much different this year, we are still doing our best to stay connected and spread holiday cheer the best way we can. This month's newsletter contains links to several videos, including a special photo album of our beloved dancers. We wish we could have included more people and more pictures, but this is a nice sampling of some of the fun we have experienced together the last few years. Be sure to visit each club's Facebook page and/or website for more photos and dance memories.

Happy Holidays to all of our dear friends. We love you and miss you, and we look forward to a bright future where we can dance and be together again. In the meantime, please do everything you can do to keep yourself and your loved ones safe so you can celebrate with us when this finally over. Here is hoping that 2021 will be a much better year!

None of the professional dancers submitted youth photos for the newsletter. I hope that instead you will enjoy seeing the reindeer dancing...and have a Very Merry Christmas.

This picture is from January 1, 2019. We always put a feeder in our backyard with a camera on it. As you know, seeing so many bucks in one place at one time is quite rare. When I send it to folks, I say the deer are hanging out after their journey on Christmas Eve. Both photos from Tanna.
